

THE ATOM

HALF-LIFE CHARDONNAY

Consider The Atom. The building block of our existence. Infinitesimal particles, entwined in an eternal dance. This matter composes you, me, everything known, touched, or tasted. At the core of these wines lies The Atom, delicately crafted into vinified elegance.

The Atom Wines, from the winemaking team that crafted the award-winning brands Twenty Rows & Centered. Explosive, passionately scientific wines from premier fruit, selected in the nucleic epicenters of California's vineyards. Meant to inspire discovery and creativity, without limits.

FOUNDER

Jason Trulby began his life-long career in wine working as a bartender during college. He developed a deep appreciation for the harmony of food & wine together. After college he received an offer to work for a distributor & 20+ years later he's still at it—having worked for distributors, wineries & later creating his own brokerage. The addition of The Atom wines to Jason's growing portfolio is a passion-play toward wines of refinement, full-body and plush character; reflecting his experience and expertise in bringing wines sourced from the finest locations and vinted with proven winemaking prowess, to the discerning drinker.
